There will be a Halloween party for the youngsters of the parish during the Sunday social hour on Sunday, Oct. 28th. – Dress up in costumes for contest prizes, games, and FUN!! You can be scary, funny, pretty, or original. "Witch" are you??

Today is the last day to get your Boscov 25% off shopping pass; they're in the sacristy for $5

St. John's Rummage Sale – It's time again for the Annual St. John's Rummage Sale!!! Start cleaning out your junk drawers, closets and basements and bring your slightly used "treasures" to the church basement and leave them on the tables under the windows. You can bring items from October 15th thru October 27th. I will be there early before the liturgies on Fridays and Saturdays. Remember:

No clothes, No furniture, No TV's, No electronics

The sale will be Friday, November 2nd from 9AM to 3PM and Saturday, November 3rd from 9AM to 1PM. See you there. Debbie Sale

GCU St. Nicholas celebration to benefit the seminary: seminary fundraiser: raffle tickets are on sale with Father Radko: cost $10.00: prize will be 50 dollars in gift cards to popular national restaurants plus $1,500.00 in cash. We have 14 tickets to sell. Any questions check with Deacon Paul or Father Radko.

There are frozen pierogies left over from the fall festival. They are $8 for a dozen. Please see a Ladies Guild member to purchase them

The Church Fathers Speak: "The Christian prays in every situation, in his walks for recreation, in his dealings with others, in silence, in reading, in all rational pursuits." Clement of Alexandria

Test your Knowledge: A Moleben Service is:

- Vespers served on the eve of some great feast
- A prayer service offered in thanksgiving for some great blessing or for the health and salvation of those suffering from illness
- Liturgy of Presanctified Gifts served during Great Lent
- Matins service offered on the mornings of great feast days

Last week's answer: During the litanies the Deacon holds up His Orarion during the reading of the petitions..
