Announcements

There will be a Halloween party for the youngsters of the parish during the Sunday social hour on Sunday, Oct. 28th. — Dress up in costumes for contest prizes, games, and FUN!! You can be scary, funny, pretty, or original. "Witch" are you??

Blue Altar Linens - The new Altar Linens, which are used during the Feasts honoring the Theotokos and during the month of October, were made by a group of nuns in Slovakia. The cost of these new linens is $250.00. If anyone is interested in donating toward the cost of these beautiful linens, please see Father Radko.

St. John's Rummage Sale — It's time again for the Annual St. John's Rummage Sale!!! Start cleaning out your junk drawers, closets and basements and bring your slightly used "treasures" to the church basement and leave them on the tables under the windows. You can bring items from October 15th thru October 27th. I will be there early before the liturgies on Fridays and Saturdays. Remember:

No clothes, No furniture, No TV's, No electronics

The sale will be Friday, November 2nd from 9AM to 3PM and Saturday, November 3rd from 9AM to 1PM. See you there. Debbie Sale

Thank You - The Milkovich family would like to express a thank you to all the parishioners of St John's church who donated to the Milkovich fire fund. May god bless you all for your kindness and generosity through this difficult time.

There are frozen pierogies left over from the fall festival. They are $8 for a dozen. Please see a Ladies Guild member or Father Radko to purchase them

Our church cookbooks have been reduced to $10. They make great Christmas gifts. See Fr. Radko or a guild member to make a purchase.

The next Ladies Guild meeting will be on November 4th after the coffee social.

Thank you to everyone who purchased Boscov coupons. We made a profit of $215

The Church Fathers Speak: "If he who was without sin prayed, how much more ought sinners pray." Cyprian of Carthage

Test your Knowledge Christ is given the title Pantocrator, this means:

- Omnipotent
- Man and God
- Conqueror
- Judge

Last week's answer: A prayer service offered in thanksgiving for some great blessing or for health and salvation of those suffering from illness is a Moleben Service.
