Announcements

Blue Altar Linens - The new Altar Linens, which are used during the Feasts honoring the Theotokos and during the month of October, were made by a group of nuns in Slovakia. The cost of these new linens is $250.00. If anyone is interested in donating toward the cost of these beautiful linens, please see Father Radko.

If anyone is interested in doing the Church Readings, please let Father or Kathy Moyta know. Church readings include the Epistle readings for Liturgies or Old Testament Readings during Lent.

While you are finding your "treasures" for our Rummage Sale, if you find any sacramental objects that need disposed of, please place in the box in the alter boy's sanctuary. Help is needed, after the Halloween Social, to put the round tables away and set up the long tables, thank you.

We will be sorting and pricing the rummage sale items all this week. If you are able to help, even for only one hour, please call Debbie 724-816-5239.

There will be a Ladies Guild meeting Sunday Nov. 4th after the coffee social.

Knitting with Diane: Wed. Oct. 31: 11:00am: Parish Center

please run the altar linen request again.

50/50 raffle: it's time for the fall 50/50 raffle. As usual the guaranteed minimum payout will be $200.00. The drawing will be during our parish St. Nicholas dinner, Sunday, Dec. 9, 2018. Envelopes with tickets will be found in the narthex(vestibule) look for your name. There are also blank envelopes with tickets in case we missed any family. There are also extra tickets on the small tables. Please pick up your tickets to save us the cost of mailing them out.

THE CHURCH FATHERS SPEAK: "Say alleluia always, no matter the time of day, no matter the season of life." Benedict of Nursia

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE: Who Is The Comforter?

- God the Father
- God the Son
- God the Holy Spirit
- None of the above

Last week's answer: A Moleben Service is a prayer service offered in thanksgiving for some great blessing or for the health and salvation of those suffering from illness.
